

Mr. Gjet Ndoj book promotion

At the University of Elbasan "Aleksandër Xhuvani," was promoted the book "The Governance of Albania During World War II 1939-1944," authored by historian Gjet Ndoj. In his welcoming speech, the Vice-Rector of the University of Elbasan, Assoc.Prof.Dr Peçi Naqellari, spoke about the importance and value of this book from academic, historical, and social perspectives, considering it a valuable reference source, especially for researchers of World War II and the governance of Albania during the years 1939-1944. He also emphasized that the promotion of such well-researched books is a significant asset for the University of Elbasan "Aleksandër Xhuvani," which continues to receive support from the rectorate and the university's structures. Present at the promotion were historians, professors, notable figures, and book enthusiasts who expressed their appreciation for the book and its author, highlighting the powerful impact it has on readers and the significance of the topics addressed.

